Fruit & Vegetable Wholesalers

Hanson Fine Foods specialises in selling Cornish cheese at wholesale prices. Dealing with the producers, Thomas is the direct link to the chef. He is the buyer, the salesman, the telesales operator as well as the deliveryman, so can provide a truly personal service.

A specially fitted refrigerated vehicle is taken to the kitchen door where the chef can taste, choose, select and order his exact requirements. Although 90% of the stock carried is Cornish, chefs have asked for other British and Continental cheeses to extend their cheeseboards.

The Cornish Duck Company
Truro, Cornwall
01726 882383
roger@cornishduck.com

The Cornish Duck Company supplies whole duck and duck portions to quality restaurants in Cornwall. Roger Olver, proprietor, said they have no plans for mass expansion: "We want the 'Cornish Duck' brand to be associated with a select, quality product. In the future we would like to see it being served up in top restaurants throughout the country but we have no plans for supplying shops or supermarkets.

"The great thing about the Cornish Duck Company in particular, is that there is absolutely zero food miles involved in the production of the meat. The ducks are bred, hatched, reared and processed on the farm and so the only travel which takes place is the final transportation of the meat to the customer – it's the perfect scenario."
